Introduction

Purpose
The purpose of this guide is to provide employees, step-by-step instructions on how to create a performance plan in MyPerformance.

MyPerformance helps employees manage performance. The tool streamlines and automates performance management processes and documentation requirements to make it easier and more efficient to track and monitor performance.

Who Should Use This Guide?
This user guide is for employees.

Background

Who to Call For Help?
If you have a question regarding your login, access to other tools within MyBiz+ pages, or system functionality, please contact your Component Help Desk. The Component Help Desk list is located at the bottom of the DCPDS Portal page at https://compo.depds.cpms.osd.mil.

Navigation Tips
Use Control and mouse click (Ctrl + Click) on the hyperlinked words to view associated screenshots or move throughout the document. Use the keyboard shortcut alt and left arrow (Alt + left arrow) to go back to where you were.

If you need to know how to perform a specific task or procedure, use the table of contents herein to locate the information.
How the Guide Is Structured

This guide helps you get started with the tool and serves as a reference whenever you need assistance with a particular function. There are two major sections in this guide:

Performance Management Appraisal Procedures for Employees
- Shows employees how to work in the tool. Work is divided into tasks that are presented under major headings with step-by-step procedures and screen shots. A brief description of the purpose and work context of both tasks and procedures is included.

Performance Management Appraisal Procedures for Rating Officials
- Shows rating officials how to work in the tool. Work is divided into tasks, which are presented under major headings with step-by-step procedures and screen shots. A brief description of the purpose and work context of both tasks and procedures is included.

Transfer, Sharing, and Ownership of Appraisal Records

MyPerformance allows employees and rating officials to transfer performance plans back and forth. Both roles can review the performance plan online, make changes to it, and then transfer the performance plan back. Employees and rating officials can share the performance plan as often as necessary during a single appraisal cycle.

Either the employee or the rating official “owns” the performance plan at any given time. Employees transfer ownership by transferring performance plans to rating officials, and rating officials transfer ownership back to employees in the same way. When the employee has ownership of the performance plan, the rating official may retrieve it in order to complete the plan or make changes.

When the employee owns the performance plan, the rating official:

- Cannot update the performance plan unless the rating official retrieves it.
- Can see all sections of the performance plan. Any changes the employee makes to an in-progress input or overall feedback are not visible to the rating official until the employee transfers the appraisal record again.

When the rating official owns the appraisal record, the employee:

- Cannot update the performance plan.
- Can view the performance plan for information only up to the last sharing point. Any changes the rating official makes to an in-progress performance plan after resuming ownership are not visible to the employee until the rating official transfers the appraisal record again.
Cutting, Copying and Pasting

You can cut or copy and paste from another document. Be aware that special characters may appear incorrectly as you paste your text into the field. You may not see the characters the way they will actually appear (that is, incorrectly) in the system until you save your changes for that page. Take the time to review the text closely after you have saved it, make any changes and save again.
Performance Management Appraisal Procedures – What Employees Need to Know

MyPerformance stores, organizes, and routes information regarding all aspects of the performance management process, including performance plans, progress reviews, and final performance appraisal discussions. This section focuses on the employee’s use of the system and explains how to use MyPerformance to enter and edit your own performance plan.

At the beginning of the rating cycle (normally April 1 of each year), you or your rating official (usually your immediate supervisor) initiate a new performance plan.

Performance plans include a maximum of ten performance elements and related performance standards. All elements are critical and each performance plan must have at least one element.

There are two approaches to creating a performance plan:

- Your rating official notifies you to create the plan, and you create it.
- Your rating official creates the plan.

You and your rating official should communicate about your performance expectations in creating and finalizing your performance plan. In order to draft your performance plan, you need certain information such as the appraisal period start, end, and effective dates and your relevant organizational mission/strategic goals. If you do not know this information, check with your rating official before you begin.
Getting Started - About DoD Performance Management Appraisal Tool

If you are new to the MyBiz+ self-service tool, pages 6 through 11 provide screen shots and descriptions of the information on the screens to help in familiarizing you with the tool. However, should you wish to get started right away, go directly to page 12 and start with ‘Creating a Performance Plan (Employee).’

The plan could be routed to you as an empty shell awaiting your input, a final document ready for your review, or a work in progress requiring edits. Your edits can include any of the following:

- Editing draft performance elements created by your rating official
- Creating new performance elements

After you have finished making edits and have finalized the performance elements, your rating official approves them. This section shows you how to edit your plan and transfer it back and forth between you and your supervisor to finalize it.

Follow these steps to review and edit your performance plan:

1. At the MyPerformance Main Page, select the performance plan you want to edit, make sure Action column reflects Update and select the Go button. You must have ownership of the performance plan to make any changes.

Acknowledging the Performance Plan (Employee)

After your rating official has finalized your performance plan and, if necessary, the performance plan has been approved by the higher level reviewer, he or she transfers the plan to you. The employee and the rating official should communicate about the final plan, then acknowledge the performance plan has been communicated to you.

Acknowledging the performance plan was communicated to you does not mean you agree with it; you are merely acknowledging it was communicated to you by your rating official. You are encouraged to engage in two-way communication with your rating official, if necessary, before you reach the acknowledgement stage to try to resolve any disagreements and determine performance elements and standards that are mutually understood by both you and your rating official.

The performance plan must be approved within 30 days from the start of the rating cycle, entrance on duty, or job change, unless an extension is granted.

As described earlier, the typical steps in the performance plan process are as follows. The step covered in this section is bold and italicized:

1. The employee or rating official creates the performance plan and enters draft performance elements and standards.

2. The employee and rating official edit and/or add to the performance plan content as needed. This process may involve multiple rounds of editing and transfers between you and your rating official before the plan is finalized.
   - The performance plan is approved by the higher level reviewer or the rating official documents the higher level reviewer approval.

3. The rating official documents communication to employee and transfers the plan so the employee can document acknowledgment.

4. The employee reviews the performance plan and acknowledges that it was communicated to him or her by the rating official.
Follow the below steps to acknowledge communication of your performance plan.

1. When Steps 1 and 2 of the Plan Approvals and Acknowledgments (see Figure 35 below) have been completed, you will receive an email message stating that your plan has been approved. (See Figure 36)

2. When the rating official completes Step 3 on the Approvals and Acknowledgments tab and the rating official selects Transfer to Employee with E-mail Notification, the employee will receive an email message. The email will communicate where you need to proceed in the performance plan/appraisal process.

3. Select the performance plan that needs to be acknowledged from MyPerformance Main Page.

4. You can review the performance plan details, mission goals and performance elements and standards before navigating to Approvals and Acknowledgments tab to acknowledge your plan. NOTE: Once the plan has been approved Progress Reviews, Annual Appraisal, and Narrative Statements tabs become available.
